

Theraband Strength Class

Join Lindsay Perez, co-owner of Wellness 360 Physical Therapy and Massage, as she strengthens your whole body with the use of resistance bands. Resistance band workouts are a great way to strengthen your muscles, from the small stabilizer muscles to the bigger postural muscles. It is also a great way to gain strength while protecting your joints.

Why resistance bands?

- Less force on your joints
- Full-range resistance training
- More effective strengthening exercise
- Improves joint stabilizing muscles
- Improves core activation
- And it's FUN!
